

Learn conversational

Spanish

Communicate more effectively with your co-workers, supervisors, and customers.

Jeff Thoms

In conjunction with Penn State Harrisburg Office of Continuing Education, the RMC brings you conversational Spanish.

Taught by Jeff Thoms and designed for beginner learners, this 10-week course is perfect for individuals who have no prior Spanish speaking knowledge. With two sessions per week, virtual classes will consist of interactive learning, situational role-plays, and practical business, workforce, and recycling industry conversation.

Thoms graduated in 1995 from Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary in Wynnewood, PA with a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy and a minor in Classical Languages. It was in graduate school that Thoms became fluent in Spanish, taking classes, visiting various places in Latin America on vacation and on mission trips, and attending an immersion program in Douglaston, Queens, NY.

In 2000 Thoms graduated from the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, OH with a Master of Arts in Theology, and a Master of Divinity. Thoms has worked as a freelance, Spanish interpreter locally for a number of years, assisting in legal, medical, social work, and corporate meetings.

Thoms enjoys teaching Conversational Spanish in a relaxed, laid-back setting.

Invest $300 and 20 hours in you!

Classes meet virtually Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Enroll online: PennRMC.org/spanish • Classes begin Tuesday April 6, 2021

The deadline to sign-up is Friday, April 2, 2021

Pennsylvania
Recycling Markets Center
Keystone of Circular Economy

Continuing
Education

